ABOUT US

For 45 years, Alamo Cafe has been part of San Antonio's story — the place families gather to celebrate birthdays, rehearsal dinners, post-game victories, Sunday lunches, and weeknight dinners. Turning meals into memories.

It started in 1981 at our original San Pedro location with fresh tortillas, generous plates of Tex-Mex, and a simple promise: take care of people and make them feel at home.

Today, Alamo Cafe is still family-owned and operated, now led by the second generation. We're proud to carry on what our father started here: genuine hospitality, food made with care, and a deep love for this community.

At both locations, guests can still watch our famous flour tortillas being made fresh in our tortilla factory, just like generations of San Antonians have done before them.

After 45 years, our promise is still the same: good food, good people, and a Fiesta at every table.
